DANGER IN A RECIPE.

It Made Good Angel Cake, but Got Woman in Trouble.

New York, April 24.—A little slip of paper, containing the recipe for an English angel cake, gave Mrs. Luehning, wife of a business man of San Francisco, a deal of trouble recently in crossing the border between Germany and Denmark. Mrs. Luehning, with her three children and a maid, arrived on the Oscar II of the Norwegian-American Line, and are stopping at the Hotel McAlpin, prior to leaving for San Francisco. Mrs. Luehning told of her experiences in the war zone.

When the German officers examined our baggage as we were about to pass into Denmark," said Mrs. Luehning, "everything seemed to meet with their entire approval, until one bright young Teuton after a minute's search of my handbag brought to light a slip of paper which I had almost forgotten was there. 'Take six eggs, cup best butter, pound American flour, beat eggs, mix,' etc., it ran in its harmless fashion; written, I must admit, in rather poor cursive, but to myself and most of the housewife, entirely legible. With a gleam of the young enthusiasm in his eye, the Teuton officer dashed up to his superior, Derberg, 'Über Alles,' he exclaimed, or something to the effect. The result was psychological. We were hustled back and baggage into the detention room of the station. And it was some hours before we could explain our way out, and then only when, with an interpreter, a college professor or two, and a chef who had been in America, we finished a complete angel cake. This, when stolidly tested and tasted by every one present, and a slice fled carefully away, probably for Kaiser Wilhelm II was voted our passport and we were released and allowed to take the next train for Copenhagen."

DAMAGE OF $1,000 IN FIRE AT ALEXANDRIA

Threatens Historic Marshall House. Five Rooms in John Magnier's Home Gutted.

Alexandria, Va., April 24.—Damage of $1,000 was done at 4 o'clock this afternoon by a fire which started in the yard in the rear of the store conducted by L. I. Milton, 426 King street. The burning of trash in the yard was responsible for the blaze. The blaze threatened the historic old Marshall House, adjoining. The flames burned the back fence and then leaped to the frame kitchen of the brick house at 119 South Pitt street, occupied by John Magnier and family. The fire also spread to the brick storerooms of C. S. Elliott, in the rear of 426 King street.

Five rooms in Mr. Magnier's house were gutted and the contents practically destroyed. The house is owned by Robert Elliott. His loss, it is said, is covered by insurance.

A quantity of glass and chinaware in the storeroom of C. S. Elliott were badly damaged by fire and water. His loss will be several hundred dollars. Samuel Cossabone, 15, son of Mrs. Cossabone, of 221 North Pitt street, was shot by a youth with a rifle while near Virginia Highlands today. The bullet entered the right breast.

Cossabone was dragging for gold fish in a pond at the time. He was assisted to an electric train by his two companions and brought to Alexandria Hospital, where the bullet was removed by Dr. George T. Kilpatrick. His chances for recovery are favorable.

Charters have been granted by the State Corporation Commission to three Alexandria concerns as follows: Emerson Pump and Valve Corporation, with a maximum capital stock of $50,000 and a minimum of $25,000. Par value is $100 a share. Objects are to manufacture pumps. Officers are O. G. Staples, president and J. W. Childress, secretary and treasurer, both of Washington.

Mayo-Dan Lumber Corporation, with a maximum and minimum capital stock of $100,000. Par value is $100 a share. Objects are to build a railroad in Patrick County, Va., not over thirty miles in length. Officers are Joseph C. Sheehy, president, and James J. Machen, secretary, all of Washington.

Arrangements are being made by the three Episcopal clergymen of this city together with the professors from the Episcopal Theological Seminary, and a number of laymen to attend the sixteenth annual meeting of the Piedmont convocation of the diocese of Virginia, which will convene in Grace Church at the Plains, Fauquier County, Tuesday morning, Rev. W. J. Motton, rector of Christ Church, this city, will deliver a sermon Wednesday morning and Thursday afternoon. Rev. Edgar Carpenter, rector of Grace P. E. Church, will talk on problems of the Sunday school.

GERMAN OUTPOST IN POLAND

A German outpost in Poland is shown here. It will be seen that the small detachment of soldiers has not taken time to trench, being satisfied to observe the Russian position. An officer may be noted, with his "periscope" binoculars, and the others are making maps and photographs. All spikes on the Kaiser's helmets are now covered with cloth to prevent their glittering in the sunlight and betraying the presence of the wearers.

The bandits risked their lives in entering the car, swinging themselves in by means of a rope. Marcy refused to open the safe and was shot for defying the bandits.

Discovers a Change in Taste.

New York, April 24.—J. Cornelius Luebs, Jr., steamship representative of the McAlpin Hotel, declares that the taste of the negro for chicken, pork and ham has veered to spaghetti and dishes of Latin concoction. Last night Luebs gathered together thirty-eight dusky friends' porters from the Phoebe Snow special of the Lackawanna, the Erie and the Pennsylvania systems, and told them he was going to give them a grand banquet in Hoboken.

"What shall I order, boys?" he asked, "the sky's the limit." "Well, sah," said "Lil Arthur Abrams of the Lackawanna. 'Let's have plenty of spaghetti, and, well, you might get a great big ham.' Spaghetti it was, and music and cabaret, and until 2:30 in the morning the merriment went on.
